

Appendix C

List of populations

1. Populations used in New data items:

- All households
- Households who live in separate houses
- Households who live in a separate house or townhouse
- Households who live in separate houses, who have fire-fighting equipment
- Households that obtained information
- Household that are aware of where to obtain information
- Households that knows all/some total fire ban restrictions
- Households with emergency plan
- Multiple person households with emergency plan
- Households who have experienced an emergency
- Households with an emergency plan, who have experienced an emergency
- Households that had an emergency plan but did not follow it in most recent emergency

2. Populations used in Demographic and State Supplementary Survey data items:

- All persons
- All households
- Multiple person households
- All households who pay rent
- Households with non-English speaker(s)
- Households who live in a separate house or townhouse
- Households who have experienced an emergency
- Households that contacted emergency services in most recent emergency
- Households that have made changes since most recent emergency
- Households with emergency plan
- Households with someone who needs help getting out of home in an emergency
- Households with first aid qualification
- Households with emergency role
- Households with emergency volunteer
- Households with safety switches or circuit breakers
- Households with smoke alarms/detectors
- Households with fire extinguishers